I am a Junior Front-end developer candidate from Gdańsk working in React. I am logical and results-driven person dedicated to building and optimizing user-focused websites for customers with various business objectives. Currently I am Dare IT mentee (Front-end path) working with my mentor on improving my technical skills and code quality. Recently, I have started to develop a non-profit project focusing on creating medical software that fights malnutrition in Polish hospitals.

📁 Work History

● Front-end mentee

Dare IT

Dare IT Mentoring is a 3-month program where I work with my mentor on my Frontend Development skills. Within the program, I'm also improving my soft skills (e.g. time management, giving feedback, team work). With over ten candidates for every place, qualifying for the program is a real achievement and I'm very proud to have participated in it.
